About

Marcus & Millichap is the largest national brokerage firm specializing in real estate investments. Our investment professionals have focused on specific property types and markets during our 40-year history. This specialization in investment transactions, property type and geography has been the foundation for providing clients exceptional service and results.

To develop the most effective services and provide the best support to clients nationally and locally, Marcus & Millichap has implemented national specialty groups for each major property category. Our national specialty groups consist of a national director, key management and support personnel, and investment professional members. Our overall mission is to assure that owners and investors receive the most effective research, advisory and transaction services tailored to the nuances of each property type.

Investment specialists in Marcus & Millichap's National Hospitality Group (NHG) focus exclusively on providing investment advisory and transaction services for hospitality, lodging and resort properties. The group leverages Marcus & Millichap's network of more than 1,200 investment specialists in offices nationwide to expose properties to the largest possible pool of qualified investors.

Specialties: Hospitality, Hotel Sales, Hotel Investments
